COURSE OVERVIEW

This training is designed to strengthen proactive patrol officers' ability to control and assess encounters through observation, behavior analysis, and purposeful questioning.

Participants will learn how to read body language and behavioral cues and apply investigative questions during suspicious person encounters.

Students will also learn how to identify indicators of criminal activity or deception and apply investigative questions during traffic stops.

Students will be given practical tips and tools to thoroughly investigate patrol cases. Rather than simply forwarding a case, this course will teach and prepare you how to ask the right questions, conduct effective follow-up investigations, and develop cases that lead to arrest warrants and search warrants.
