COURSE OVERVIEW

This one-day course is designed to provide law enforcement officers with the knowledge, skills, and practical application necessary to effectively develop, manage, and utilize confidential informants (CIs) in support of criminal investigations.

Students will learn proven techniques for identifying, recruiting, handling, and debriefing CIs while minimizing risk and maximizing the value of the information obtained. The course also addresses legal considerations, documentation, informant reliability, case support, and officer safety.

Through real-world experience, practical examples, and scenario-based exercises, students will gain the tools needed to confidently and professionally work with confidential informants in narcotics, vice, and other specialized investigations.

TOPICS INCLUDE

- Identifying and recruiting potential CIs
- Evaluating credibility and reliability
- Developing and maintaining CI relationships
- Legal considerations and jurisdictional guidelines
- Documentation and report writing
- Handling, tasking, and debriefing CIs
- Managing risk and mitigating liability
- Use of CIs in controlled buys, surveillance, and undercover operations
- Informant safety and security
- Case law and privacy considerations
- Practical scenarios and group exercises
