What to expect:

This training will consist of the Psychological aspects of Undercover work and Undercover techniques used to be a successful Undercover Detective. Real-life Scenarios will be conducted throughout the training to instill confidence in the students for their day-to-day investigations. The training will include the importance of Undercover backstops, Prop/equipment used, and Undercover Defensive Tactics Techniques. Undercover scenarios will be conducted in various environments to give students the full, realistic experience.

Course Instructors

Agent Rafael Baez has over fifteen years of experience as a law enforcement officer. Agent Baez has spent over 12 years working undercover operations involving narcotics and firearms investigations. Agent Baez started instructing in 2015 and has provided training at the local, regional, and national level for the Department of Defense Special Operations and for over a thousand law enforcement officers in Florida. Agent Baez instructs topics such as: Defensive Tactics to civilians and law enforcement officers, Firearms, Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, Surveillance Techniques, Undercover Operations, and Vehicle Assaults. Agent Baez has also been a member of the S.W.A.T Team since 2012.

Agent Al Rodriguez has over 35 years of experience as a law enforcement officer between the Philadelphia Police Department and the Osceola County Sheriff's Office. Agent Rodriguez has spent over 32 years working undercover operations involving narcotics and firearms investigations. Agent Rodriguez has conducted numerous long-term investigations with a focus on drug trafficking organizations (DTO) that either foreign or domestic cartels fuel. These investigations have gone statewide, nationally (Texas, California, New York, Puerto Rico), and internationally (Mexico, Canada, and South America). Agent Rodriguez has been successful throughout his career in the dismantling of several DTO's utilizing his undercover skills.
